

Women's Agenda Assemblies are coming

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD!

10th Biennial Series

Sponsored by North Carolina Women United

Purpose: To encourage women to

- Discuss Healthcare, Education, Aging and other public policy issues likely to come before the next session of the Legislature
- Share how public policy decisions affect their lives
- Improve their skills as citizen advocates

Saturday, October 21 9:30 a.m.-2 p.m.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

Wesley Memorial UMC • 825 Hartness Road • Statesville

Mary Peterson, Coordinator, AAUW NC Public Policy Team Leader

Iredell County Grassroots Meeting Collaborators

- American Association of University Women of North Carolina
- AAUW Statesville Branch
- Career Women
- Iredell Democrat Women
- Altrusa International, Inc. of Statesville
- Greater Statesville Chamber of Commerce
- W.H.E.E.L.

Learn more at www.ncwu.org

- Draft Agenda
- Position papers to jump start the discussions

Cost and Registration

- $10 includes lunch. Write checks to Statesville Branch AAUW. Mail to Sue Goodwin, 358 New Salem Road, Statesville NC 28625 by Oct. 12. 704-872-2986 or sgoodwin@vvi.net