Dear Branch President,

As your branch years start, I do hope you'll have fun as the members gather and plan for 2006-2007.

I planned to keep these messages SHORT, but there are so many things that have been going on, I decided to include a "virtual information packet" in this mailing. If you've been keeping up with the AAUW NC News system, you'll have seen all of this before. But I want to make sure you're all "in the loop".

I'd like to concentrate this message on strongly encouraging you to attend any or all of the following events:

North Carolina

October 19, NC Women's Conference, Charlotte. If you want to help with the AAUW recruiting booth, contact Barbara White. We do have a few discounted registrations available and "helpers" don't have to register. We want this event to get AAUW's name "out there" so more of your prospects will have heard of us.

October 20 Board Meeting and October 21 Conference, Statesville. If you can't attend, please encourage your public policy leaders to represent you at the board meeting and participate in the Women's Agenda Assembly on Saturday. We're welcoming those who are experienced with Agenda Assemblies and those new to the process! The Agenda Assemblies have survived for 20 years because they are a unique way for women to raise their voices. See the Draft Agenda excerpt for a taste of the discussion.

April 20 Board Meeting, April 21-22 NC Convention in Winston-Salem. This is shaping up to be a great event! Join us as we share our strengths to move the mission forward in North Carolina.

June 29 – July 2, 2007. AAUW Convention in Phoenix. Talk continues of major changes. You'll want a voice at this meeting! Start planning now so that at least one of your branch members can carry your votes to this event.

And I do hope to see you at one of your events!

Yours in equity,

President
