

Working Women's Wednesdays – Keys to Success

“It's good to have lunch with women that have more on their minds than what's for lunch.”

Dr. Johnetta Cole, President, Bennett College – WWW Guest Speaker 2005

Working Women's Wednesdays presents Judy Van Wuyckhuysse, owner of VanTel Communications, to share why “Talk is Cheap, but Service is Priceless”. Judy found success in the fast-paced field of cellular phone service starting from her first opportunity to work for Motorola C & E in 1984 as an Outside Sales Rep. In 1998, she began working with Nextel Communications and in 2000 had the privilege to partner with Nextel. She opened VanTel Communications, a Nextel sales and service center in Burlington and now has a store in Greensboro as well. VanTel's customers include LabCorp of America, United Guaranty, departments of Alamance, Guilford and Forsyth county governments and local school systems.

Selected by BizWomen for their 2004 Women in Business award, Judy is considered one of the Triad's most successful and influential female entrepreneurs in our area, demonstrating excellence in the way she runs her company. She serves as an inspiration to every small-business owner and senior-level executive: Hard work and determination yield a bountiful harvest.

Judy VanWuyckhuysse is deeply involved in our community as evidenced by her volunteer work with the Chamber of Commerce and the United Way of Alamance County, winning the Colleen Newsome Campaign Award for outstanding service.

Attorney Angela Newell Gray, a partner in the firm Gray, Newell, Johnson & Blackmon, in Winston-Salem, focuses primarily on the issue of discrimination and will discuss “Unwelcome Attention: Sexual Harassment & the Law” on March 28. Angela is a graduate of the North Carolina Central University School of Law in Durham and received her undergraduate degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is licensed to practice law in the United States Supreme Court, the North Carolina Supreme Court and Federal District Courts of North Carolina. She is a member of the North Carolina Bar Association, North Carolina Association of Black Lawyers and the North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers. In 2001, she was accepted as a life member of the National Registry of Who's Who.

Ms. Gray is a former Associate Professor at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and has lectured throughout the state of North Carolina on the topic of employment law, sexual harassment and discrimination. Ms. Gray has been featured in “Lawyers Weekly” and is also a certified mediator.

The Working Women's Wednesdays (WWW) series brings speakers to Alamance County that are outstanding in many ways. Dynamic speakers...issues that impact our careers, life success, and workplace productivity...where else would you have this opportunity to go to lunch and hear from these remarkable women? Call and register today!

The WWW monthly luncheon series is designed by the Women's Resource Center and WIN (Women Into Networking). Don't miss the best opportunity for networking in Alamance County. Individual tickets are available by contacting the WRC at 336-227-6900. Prepaid reservations are required to attend WWW and must be made by the Friday preceding the luncheon date. Cost: WRC members $20 / Non-members $25. Payment accepted by cash, check or credit card.

Mark your calendar now for the 2007 luncheon dates: February 28, March 28, April 25, May 23 and June 27.

The series is sponsored by the Women's Resource Center and the Alamance County Chamber of Commerce Small Business Council.

Additional sponsors include:

Alamance Regional Medical Center, Banners Signs Etc. , Carolina Bank, Dolly's Pizza, Glen Raven, Inc., Kernodle Clinic, Partners Home Services, Inc., PROTECH COMMUNICATIONS, Inc., Stout Stuart McGowen & King LLP, The Anderson Center for Positive Human Development, VantageSouth Bank, and Wishart Norris Henninger & Pittman - Attorneys and Counselors at Law